

Project Alpha was launched in 2024 by TechCorp, a company located in San Francisco.

Guido van Rossum is the Lead Architect for Project Alpha.

Project Alpha utilizes Python as its primary programming language and uses Neo4j as its database.

Sarah Connor is the Project Manager at TechCorp and supervises Guido van Rossum.

Neo4j is a graph database developed by Neo4j Inc., located in San Jose.